

James Madison University
College of Education

These recognitions are presented each year to persons within our partnerships who routinely demonstrate their commitment to nurturing and furthering JMU College of Education's charge of building positive and productive relationships.

The Partnership Award for Services Recognizes

Dr. Oris Griffin McCoy

For having a positive impact on students' and teachers' knowledge and skills as related to partnership efforts through active and direct involvement in school-university partnership activities.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading 'Phillip M. Wishon', is written over a horizontal line.

Phillip M. Wishon,
Dean, College of Education

Awarded the 3rd day of May, 2012